Are You Interested In A Career In The Healthcare Supply Chain?

The Health Industry Distributors Association (HIDA) invites student applications for conference scholarship including travel costs

HIDA offers a conference “Emerging Leaders” scholarship for students to attend an industry symposium focused on improving the healthcare supply chain. The scholarship includes complimentary conference registration, reimbursement for travel costs, and special opportunities to interact with industry leaders.

The Event

HIDA’s 2025 MedSupplyChain Conference takes place February 5–7 in Cape Coral, Florida. The conference brings healthcare industry leaders together to build supply chain visibility, advance best practices in areas like demand planning and logistics, and enhance partnerships among trading partners and the public and private sectors.

The event includes general sessions, networking events, and breakout tracks focused on demand management, logistics & shipping, technology, and resilience. Roundtable conversations focus on ways to move the industry forward to improve supply chain effectiveness and supply/demand alignment.

The Conference Scholarship

Emerging Leaders selected for this scholarship will receive complimentary conference registration, inclusion in all programming and networking opportunities, and reimbursement for travel and lodging costs. Students selected for the program will travel to the event on February 5, attend all conference functions, and travel back to their schools the afternoon or evening of February 7.

About HIDA

HIDA represents the healthcare distribution network – the essential link between global healthcare supply manufacturers and local care providers. Our 500+ distribution centers bring critical products, supplies, and services to more than half a million healthcare settings across the U.S., including hospitals, long-term care, physician practices, home care, and laboratories.

Eligibility

The Emerging Leaders scholarship is open to any undergraduate (sophomore or above) or graduate school student pursuing a degree in business, logistics, or supply chain management with an interest in working in the field of medical product distribution.

How To Apply Please send a resume and a cover letter to Chandler Mobley at mobley@hida.org. Your cover letter should explain why you would like to attend the event and how you would contribute to the dialogue. The deadline for submissions is Friday, November 1, 2024.
